

Bryan Hall
Circuit Rider Planner
Office of State Planning and Coordination

Bryan Hall currently service as the Sussex County Delaware Circuit Rider Planner for the Office of State Planning and Coordination where he provides technical assistance to local and county governemnts on land use activities within and throughout the state of Delaware. Prior to this postion, Bryan served as the urban and commuity forestry coordinator and the state arborist for the Delaware Forest Service where he promoted and develop urban forestry management programs throughout the state. In additon, while working for the Delaware Forest Service, he expanded the agencies role in the mitigation of invasive species to reduce fire danger throughout by developing and incorperating IVM standards within community comprehensive land use management plans. In addition as an active member of the International Society of Arboriculture he continues to grow the certified arborist probram throughout Delaware. Bryan, graduated from Wesley College in Dover with a Master of Science in Environmental Sciences and a Bachelors of Science in Forestry from West Virginia University in Morgantown.