

Charles J. Newlon

Professional Forester, Adjunct Forestry Professor, and Forestry Education Consultant

44 Canary Way

Hamilton, NJ 08690-3551

609-838-7083 Home/Office

e-mail cbnewlon@optonline.net

Education: Bachelor of Science, Forest Utilization and Management, Colorado State University 1956

Experience:

Consulting

1992 to present--Forestry consultant in Natural Resource Management, Environmental Education, and Interpretation.

Teaching 1988 to 2005--Adjunct Professor Forestry – Delaware State University; 1988–2005; Guest Lecturer; Forestry, University of Delaware; 1997– 2005.; and Arboriculture Instructor, Williamson Free School for Mechanical Trades (3-year Junior College) 1995-1997

Prior Employment

1967-1992--Federal Government USDA Forest Service, Liaison Forester, between State Foresters and National Forests (20 NE States) Radnor PA 1988-1992; Director, Public Affairs (16 National Forests), Milwaukee, WI 1984-1988; Director, Public Involvement and EE Programs, National Office, Washington, DC 1974-1984; Asst. Director Public Affairs, (16 NFs), Missoula, Mt.1971-1974; and Director Public Affairs, Forestry Research, in Oregon, Washington and Alaska, Portland OR 1967-1971
1956-1967—State Government Colorado State Forest Service, Marketing and Utilization Forester state-wide 1964-1967; and Service Forester 7 counties along the Rocky Mt. front range.

Work included a great variety of projects and duties such as; With the USFS-- narrating a 5 min radio program about Forestry Research on 43 stations in OR, WA & AK; Earning a National award for Public Service TV announcement; Directing Woodsy Owl, Environmental Education programs nationwide, and overseeing gathering of public comments on nationwide programs; managing Q&A sessions with national natural resource and environmental organizations for the US Secretary of Agriculture; Writing several hundred news releases, a weekly newsletter for the US Forest service Northeast Area, and numerous educational brochures; With the State--working with all wood products industries in Colorado to improve their products and their markets; wrote a state-wide newsletter; also while a field forester working on state and private forest land management and protection, wrote and hosted a ½ hour TV program “CSU Outdoors” on the ABC-TV station in Denver every 3 rd week for 5 years.. Currently produce the Forest Stewardship newsletter for the State Forester of New Jersey

:

Professional Memberships: Society of American Foresters, International Society of Arboriculture, and New Jersey Forestry Association; Board of Directors: Delaware State University Herbarium.